

HERE YOU ARE! THE ENTIRE STOCK OF

Anderson's Bazaar

—CONSISTING OF—
Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots,
SHOES, HATS, CARPETS,
TRUNKS, CLOAKS, &C.,
—TO BE SOLD AT—
COST AND LESS THAN COST

Commencing on Monday AUGUST 5.

WE WILL OFFER EVERYTHING IN EVERY DEPARTMENT OF OUR STORE AT COST.

NOW IS YOUR TIME TO Lay in Your Winter Boots and Shoes,
CLOTHING, ETC.,
AND SAVE THE PROFITS YOU WILL BE COMPELLED TO PAY
AFTER A WHILE.

In the meantime we are open to propositions from parties who may wish to buy one of the best paying businesses in this country. We will sell all or a portion of the stock, with our good will, upon the most favorable terms. If you have capacity and integrity but no money, we will loan you the money to prosecute a business that will net you five thousand dollars per annum, though you may sell on the shortest possible profit. Our trade is cash, and the class of customers is the most to be found anywhere. Here is a rare chance for an industrious, energetic man to make BIG MONEY.

Should we receive propositions from purchasers for the stock, the Cost Sale mentioned above will be withdrawn.

Mr. G. C. Westfield has recently ordered to meet five buildings for the Central Coal Co., at Hamilton.

A SETTLEMENT

There was a large crowd of people in town Monday.

Just received at C. N. Gunther's a stock of fine fruits.

Quite a number of our friends too numerous to mention, called on us while in town Monday.

On G. C. Westfield for everything in the fancy grocery line. Fresh bread and cakes constantly on hand.

G. C. Westfield has applied for the position of commissioner for this magnificent district of the county to be taken in 1891. Mr. Westfield has always been a staunch Republican, and will doubtless have a good showing for the place.

I will preach next Sunday at New Britain at 11 o'clock on the subject of "Communion" and will administer the Lord's supper that day. At 4 o'clock, I will preach on the subject of "The Kingdom." Every body invited to attend church that day. (G. J. BEAS.)

The colored Baptist Association, which held its recent session here, was largely attended from various parts of the surrounding country. Monday was the last day of the meeting, and the largest crowd was on hand there. Rev. C. B. McLeod was chosen to preach on that occasion. The meeting was a very successful one throughout.

THE TEACHERS.

Institute called to order by Sup't. Loney at 8:45. Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. F. W. Foster, and after the Institute joined in singing the appropriate song, "I will be with you." The Practical Education of the previous day read and received.

Dr. W. B. Hayward then addressed the Institute for an hour and twenty minutes, on the subject of "The Education of the Teacher." In his introductory remarks he said:

LAUREL AND GENTLEMEN OF THE OHIO COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE: It is a surprise to me that I stand before you in this hall, for I have never before been invited to do so. I have been invited to do so by the call on me in the Hartford Herald signed by the School Committee, and I have been invited to do so by the call on me in the Hartford Herald signed by the School Committee, and I have been invited to do so by the call on me in the Hartford Herald signed by the School Committee.
